16 Days Activism Against Gender Based Violence Campaign Report of Jharsuguda District

District Name- Jharsuguda

Reporting Period: -25th November 2024- 10th December 2024

1. Overview of Campaign Activities: -

The 16th Days of Activism Campaign was a comprehensive initiative held from November 25 to December 10, aimed at raising awareness, educating the community, and advocating for the elimination of gender-based violence. The campaign was marked by a series of targeted activities, workshops, and outreach efforts designed to engage different segments of the community, including frontline workers, students, teachers, working women, religious leaders, general public, and local leaders.

The campaign started on November 25thwith an inaugural event where district officials addressed the public, emphasizing the goals of the campaign and the urgency of ending GBV. Flyers were distributed to inform the public about the campaign's objectives. On 26thNovember, Gender Sensitization Workshops were held for frontline workers, including Anganwadi workers and One Stop Centre staff, focusing on empathy, confidentiality, and effective victim support. These sessions aimed to strengthen the ability of frontline workers to address cases of Gender Based Violence.

On 27thNovember, emergency response awareness was promoted by educating the community about helplines like 112, 181, and 1098. Leaflets in local languages were distributed to ensure accessibility to emergency services. The focus on legal rights on 28thNovember provided essential information about how to file Domestic Incident Reports (DIR) and access platforms like SHe-Box for reporting workplace harassment. This session aimed to empower community members to take legal action against GBV.

Campaign also worked to link Gender Resource Centres and One Stop Centre on 29thNovember, facilitating better coordination and support for women in need. On 30thNovember, a legal workshop was held to provide information on vital laws, such as the Domestic Violence Act, POCSO Act, and the Sexual Harassment Act. These efforts were complemented by a Mission Shakti Awareness event on 1stDecember, informing women about the services available under Mission Shakti.On 3rdDecember, school awareness programs were conducted, educating students and teachers on consent, gender equality, good touch and bad touch.On 4th December the campaign also leveraged social media to amplify its reach, with posts, videos, and infographics shared across platforms to promote helplines, legal rights, and support services.Workshops on positive masculinity on 5thDecembertargeted men and boys, aiming to challenge harmful gender norms.

The campaign concluded with a community walk on December 7, showing solidarity against GBV, and a closing ceremony on December 10, where participants pledged their commitment to ending violence.

In conclusion, the campaign successfully raised awareness, educated communities, and fostered a sense of solidarity in the fight against gender-based violence, making a significant impact across the district.

3. Key Achievement and impact: -

Key Achievement: -The 16 Days of Activism Campaign achieved significant success in raising awareness and combating gender-based violence. Key achievements include widespread education on legal rights and support services, particularly through workshops and social media campaigns. The campaign strengthened community engagement by involving diverse groups like frontline workers, school children, and community leaders. It also promoted positive masculinity, encouraging men and boys to challenge harmful gender norms. Moreover, the campaign increased access to legal resources and empowered individuals to report violence. The overall impact fostered a more informed, committed community dedicated to preventing gender-based violence.

Impact: The 16 Days of Activism successfully created a more informed, engaged, and empowered community ready to address and combat gender-based violence. The campaign's combination of legal education, community involvement, and media outreach ensured that individuals at all levels were equipped to take action, fostering a more supportive environment for victims and a safer society for all.

a. Total reach: -Throughout the 16th days campaign we covered 5 block, 2 municipality area. Through the different activities, awareness walk, social media engagement, community outreach we reached to around 10000 people.

b. Major Highlight: -

- The campaign achieved a high turnout at events, especially in community outreach programs like workshops, roadshow. These activities saw significant participation from local communities, schools, and working professionals.
- The social media campaigns, including infographics, videos, and posts, gained wide attention and reached a large audience. Social media played a key role in spreading awareness and engaging younger generations.

c. Social Media engagement: -

The social media campaign included multiple posts on platforms like Facebook, Twitter, and WhatsApp. These posts garnered significant reach, with impressions reaching several thousand individuals, particularly among younger audiences.

- Number of Posts: Over 20 posts were made across social media platforms.
- Likes and Shares: Posts received hundreds of likes and shares, helping spread the campaign's message organically.

4. Recommendation for future campaign: -

Based on the experience and outcomes of the 16 Days of Activism Campaign, the following suggestions are provided to improve the effectiveness of future campaigns:

• Future campaigns could benefit from earlier and more extensive collaboration with media personnel, police personnel, local leaders, including religious and community

- heads. These leaders can play a crucial role in spreading messages and ensuring community-wide participation.
- Use of paid social media ads or sponsored posts could further boost visibility in the target areas.
- To further strengthen community participation, future campaigns could involve more interactive, grassroots-based activities such as door-to-door awareness campaigns, local art exhibitions, and interactive theater.
- Engaging more local schools, colleges and youth groups more deeply by incorporating them in planning and execution could build a sense of ownership and long-term commitment to the cause.
- Continue to prioritize initiatives promoting positive masculinity and challenge harmful gender norms. Additional targeted campaigns for men and boys could be integrated into local schools, workplaces, and community centers.
